

Riga, February 8, 2021

CERTIFICATE

This is to certify that Ms. VERONIKA ZAITSEVA associate professor from Kiev University named after Boris Grinchenko (Ukraine) has successfully completed 160 hours (October 1, 2020 – February 7, 2021) long internship programme at BA School of Business and Finance.

The internship programme “Distance learning of fine arts for inclusive education” contains:

1. Theoretical and methodological principles of inclusive and special education in Europe.
2. Comparative analysis of modern European studies in terms of the ideology of high-quality training.
3. The influence of subject-subject factor on knowledge management and innovative approaches in improving training.
4. Theoretical aspects of the development of professional training of fine arts and socio-cultural activities in the context of pressing challenges of our time.

The program took place online

Andris Natrins

Vice rector for Research, Infrastructure and Business development
BA School of Business and Finance
Riga

